

Mental Representations in a Mechanical World

The State of the Debate in Philosophy of Mind and Philosophy of Science

28.-29.11.2019 | Veranstaltungszentrum Saal 4 | Ruhr University Bochum

organized by Matej Kohár & Beate Krickel | meta4e.com

financial support by RUB-Research School & DFG-funded RTG "Situated Cognition"

Thursday, Nov 28

10:00-10:15	Welcome and Introduction
10:15-11:15	Marcin Miłkowski: "Cognition is (mostly) representational. So what?"
11:15-11:45	Break
11:45-12:30	Matej Kohár: "What must we do to explain cognitive phenomena?"
12:30-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:45	Dimitri Coelho Mollo: "The Telecomputational View of Representation"
14:45-15:00	Break
15:00-15:45	Ross Pain and Stephen Mann: "The mechanics of representation: teleosemantics meets the free energy principle"
15:45-16:00	Break
16:00-16:45	Danaja Rutar and Wanja Wiese: "Taking representational gradation seriously"
16:45-17:00	Break
17:00-18:00	Carrie Figdor: "Mental representations and mental evaluations"
19:30	Conference Dinner

Friday, Nov 29

10:00-11:00	Jolien Francken: "Conceptual issues in cognitive neuroscience"
11:00-11:30	Break
11:30-12:15	Samuel Taylor: "Mental Representations as Instruments"
12:15-13:45	Lunch
13:45-14:45	Joe Dewhurst: "Folk psychological representations and neural mechanisms"
14:45-15:00	Break
15:00-15:45	Beate Krickel: "Unconscious mental representations in a mechanical world"
15:45-16:00	Break
16:00-17:00	Karina Vold: "Multiply realised representations: exploring the role of mental representations in the wild"
17:00-17:15	Break
17:15-18:30	Plenary Discussion